SIMPLE TIPS TO REKINDLE THE ROMANCE

Passion within relationships is like a fire bringing warmth and comfort. Keep in mind, like a fire, if you aren't feeding it the flames will slowly die out. When couples find themselves in a rut, often times it's because they aren't being intentional. You've stopped going on dates, communicating, and trying new things like you once did.

Luckily, there are ways to reignite your love life. The first and most important step is communication. Feeling like things have become mundane? Communicate it! Want to try something new and risky in the bedroom? Communicate it! If your partner loves you, they'll want to hear you out. Also, remember that communication is a two way street. Be open to hearing your partner's thoughts and feelings.

"Couples stay connected by talking. Talking is always the key. You should be able to talk about the good and hard days together." - Amber, Seductions Romance Expert

Secondly, set aside time for each other. With work and other responsibilities, it may seem as though you have no time for romance. THAT'S NOT TRUE. Find ways to make the time, even if it's sending your partner a quick sweet text letting them know that they still have your heart. In order to keep things in your relationship red hot, you have to tend to it daily.

Lastly, have fun! Do things you've always wanted to do and try things you never thought you would. Make Google your best friend and discover things you didn't even know existed. Let the rekindling of your romance begin!

Clitoral Stimulation

Why you'll love it

Having a hard time getting you or your lady to climax? Don't panic! This isn't unusual. 75% of women don't experience an orgasm through intercourse alone.

There are over 8,000 nerve endings in the clitoris. This is why toys that provide direct clitoral stimulation are important. Unlike regular toys, these devices are made to perfectly fit your pearl to provide maximum pleasure. These toys are great for intense foreplay with your partner.

Cock Rings

Why you'll love it

Hearing the term "cock ring" might initially make you laugh, but don't be deterred. So what is it? Cock rings are toys, often made from silicone that are placed at the base of the penis to restrict the blood flow which leads to firmer erections.

If you're looking to have a long night of love making a cock ring might be the way to go. These rings help get penises firm even after ejaculation. Even more fun, C-rings come in a large variety such as textured and vibrating.

Remote Controlled

Why you'll love it

Imagine you're in your favorite restaurant with your boo. Suddenly, they push a button that sends shivers down your spine without touching you. That's the magic of remote controlled toys.

Thanks to technology your partner can now pleasure you by controlling your sex toys with a remote control or an app. These devices are fun because they add a sense of playfulness and excitement to your sex life. You can play games and complete dares. The ideas are as limitless.

SETTING THE MOOD AT HOME

You might be wondering how can turn your home into a romantic scene straight out of the movies. The answer: props! That's right. Just like the movies, you too can use props to spruce up your home to take it from hot mess to hot sex.

Great props you could use include faux rose petals, candles (especially the massage oil kind), wine, clean sheets, chocolate, and lingerie for your partner.

SETTING THE MOOD AT A HOTEL

The benefit of setting the mood in a hotel and not your own home is that it's a total change of scenery for the both of you. You can experience things you may not have at home, such as an indoor jacuzzi.

If you don't mind spending extra money and aren't interested in setting things up yourself, you can also book hotels that are specifically designed for romantic endeavors such as the "honeymoon suite." If not, you can use the same props listed.

SEXY TIPS FOR PARENTS

01

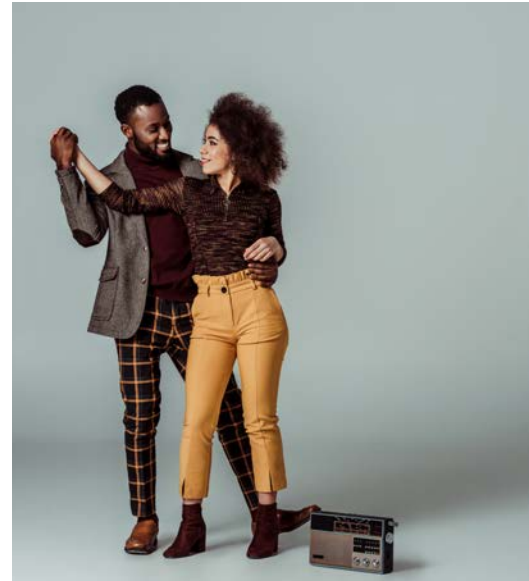

Keep the intimacy going throughout the day. Hugging, kissing, and sexting regularly goes a long way.

02

Lock the door! Kids have a habit of barging in. Keep the door locked so they don't accidentally see too much.

03

Call the babysitter and have some alone time. Commit to weekly or monthly date nights or hotel stays just for the two of you.
